Rose of the forest fades a-- way; Now the gentle summer breezes are com .. -- ing, To fan sweet Lil -- .. ly Day.
Soprano.
Sweet, sweet Lilly, thou art ever, ever bright and gay; Oh, I
Alto.
Sweet, sweet Lilly, thou art ever, ever bright and gay; Oh, I Tenor.
Sweet, sweet Lilly, thou art ever, ever bright and gay; Oh, I
Bass.
Sweet, sweet Lilly, thou art ever, ever bright and gay; Oh, I
Piano.

2.

On the Prarie-there are lovely flowers growing,
Brighter than the Southern Orange tree;
There are Silv'ry Streamlets ever, ever flowing,
To bathe sweet Lilly Day.

CHORUS.

3.

When the Evening Shade around that flow'r is creeping,
Sweet she smiles while the balmy Zephyrs play;
Then the gentle Moon o'er Hills a-far is peeping,
To smile on Lilly Day.
